CONFESSION

I Thank You Lord for Your loving kindness and tender mercies towards me. You care for the birds and You care much more for me because I am more valuable in Your sight. I choose to look at Your word and not at my circumstances and I know Your promises will come to pass in my life this year; therefore I praise You because it is done, in Jesus name – Amen!

*Do not fear therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows.
- Matthew 10:31*

The God of heaven clothes the lilies and gives the flowers their beautiful colors. Not a bird falls to the ground without His permission; so even when the hunter takes aim, it is only by the will of God that his aim hits a bird. How do birds get their daily supply of food without toiling? How do they live without a care when they keep nothing in store? Do they fall sick, and when they do, who treats and heals them? How do they survive the blistering storms that rage upon the earth, considering that their nests are made with hay, having no 'foundations laid in stones?' Who tells migratory birds when to migrate when seasons change and who writes the sweet songs that they sing? It's obvious, Jehovah Elohim by His pure providence watches over, takes care of and provides for them. Simply put, God cares for every detail in the lives of these birds.

God is a Creator who is not far removed from His creation; and that is seen in the attention He gives to the tiniest of these birds. "Ever since God created the world, His invisible qualities, both His eternal power and His divine nature, have been clearly seen; they are perceived in the things that God has made." ~ Romans 1:20 (GNT). We are in the fourth month of the year already and in his usual manner, the devil may have started painting pictures of negativity (doubt, unbelief, fear, anxiety) in your mind. You may be bombarded with questions like, "When or how will this (whatever it is you believe for) happen in my life, or will this ever happen for me?" I want you to know that the God who cares for the birds cares much more for you...If He's mindful of the least of His creatures, how much more you, who is made in His image – fearfully and wonderfully?

He knows where to turn and what to do with you. He changes times and seasons and nothing is impossible for Him. Don't allow the devil deceive you to think that something is wrong with you, and that that is why you are yet to see the manifestations of what you believe for. NO, nothing is wrong with you! God has got you covered; put your trust absolutely, immovably and continually in Him. He will not let you down; after all you are worth more to Him than many sparrows!
